

History and Heritage- Motors & Electronics

- 1936 – Window regulator production begins in France
- 1936 – Ternstedt Manufacturing Company invents and produces the first practical car regulator in Detroit
- 1966 – Compagnie Industrielle de Mecanismes formed as a supplier of window regulators
- 1971 – CIM patents the electrical window regulator
- 1978 – First electric motor line launch in France

- 1998 – Launch of the New Generation Motor with anti-pinch
- 1999 – Production of MUX Renault Anti-Squeeze began
- 2001 – Launch of the first Hybrid Door Module
- 2005 – Electronic door control module launched in France
- 2007 – NEM motor launched
- 2010 – Production of roller blind began